

Homesickness and Welcoming Others

A children's lesson

Created by Rachel Marie, B.Ed.

Education and Behavior Consultant

Downloadable at:

quirkyresource.com/

Agenda

Story: My name is Not Refugee

Share: Have you been somewhere different?

Competition: How many ways can you think of to welcome someone?

Review: What did we learn today

What can we support you with today?

'A much-needed, lovely book for small children which explains the refugee crisis in a simple, child-friendly way' JACQUELINE WILSON

My name is not Refugee

ate Milner

WINNER
V&A Illustration
Awards
2016

Story time:

What happens
When you go
To a new country?

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q9n1plse2K4>

Have you gone somewhere new?

What was different?

What did you
miss?

Many people in our community
Are from somewhere
far away

And decided to come live
in Canada

Children

Quirkyresource.com

Children

What can we do to make them feel
welcome?

Who can think of the most things?

You have 5 min to write or draw as many as you can!

What we learned today!

Some people travel far from their home to live in a new country

There are many things different between both countries, and they may miss things from home

We can be a good neighbor and make them feel welcome 😊

Children

What can we support you with today?

- Bullying?
- Sickness?
- Trouble with a friend?
- A family member?
- Something happening in the world?
- _____ ?

Library

You can search the files below by title or by the category drop down.

Children

Coping with Anxiety work book

447.16 KB

PREVIEW

September 1, 2021

Ally

Cognitive

Emotive

Imaginative

Sensory

More lessons like this in our library

quirkyresource.com/library